

VESPA GERMAN COURSES

GENERAL INFORMATION FOR EXTERNAL STUDENTS

We offer German courses for exchange students and for international degree students from our VESPA partner universities.

In exceptional cases, remaining places will be allocated to external students. The course fee for external students is 130.- EUR per person and course plus costs of books.

Procedure:

1. Register online during our application deadline (1 to 27 August for intensive course, 18 September to 3 October 2017 for semester course): www.sprachenverbund-vespa.de/sprachkurse/daf/daf.htm
In the field "Hochschule in Stuttgart/University in Stuttgart" tick "Sonstige/other" and specify your institutional affiliation as well as your level of German (if available: official German certification) in "Kommentar/comment". Please note: The online application does not mean that you will get a place in one of our courses, even if you are not on the waiting list.
2. You will get a separate message. If we admit you to a course, you will receive an application form, which includes our account details. The admission is limited to one specific course only and does not mean that you will get a place in another VESPA German course.
3. Complete the application form and return the form and a proof of your payment via email to vespa@hdm-stuttgart.de before the beginning of the course. Please note that the application is binding. The payment of the course fee is obligatory once we received your application!
4. Only if you transferred the money, you are allowed to join our German course.
